(For Submission under Article 51(c) of the Constitution of India)

To

His Excellency,

The President of the Republic of India

Rashtrapati Bhavan, New Delhi – 110004

India

Subject:

Respectful Constitutional Submission under Article 51(c) of the Constitution of India Requesting Transmission of an International Moral–Legal Declaration to the United Nations and its Member States.

Your Excellency,

With the highest respect to the constitutional office of the President of the Republic of India, I, Aaryan Narasimhan Radhakrishnan, respectfully submit herewith an Official International Moral–Legal Declaration titled:

“A GLOBAL MORAL AND LEGAL APPEAL FOR ACKNOWLEDGMENT, ACCOUNTABILITY AND PUBLIC APOLOGY BY THE UNITED NATIONS FOR THE FAILURE TO SAFEGUARD PEACE, LIFE, DIGNITY, AND CONTINUITY OF ALL LIVING AND NON-LIVING BEINGS.”

This submission is made under Article 51(c) of the Constitution of India, which directs the State to promote international peace and security, maintain just and honourable relations between nations, foster respect for international law, and encourage settlement of international issues by peaceful means.

Your Excellency, this Declaration is not an accusation, litigation, or adversarial communication against the United Nations or its Member States. It is a conscience-based moral appeal rooted in humility, righteousness (Aram) and ethical responsibility.

The Declaration respectfully invites the United Nations to undertake public moral reflection and acknowledgment of its limitations in fully safeguarding peace, life, dignity, and continuity of all living and non-living beings since its inception, and to consider a public moral apology as an act of ethical leadership and renewal.

The submission seeks no sanction, no legal liability, and no binding obligation. Its sole purpose is to strengthen global trust in multilateralism, restore moral authority, and encourage Aram-based global governance that honours the sanctity of life and the continuity of existence.

I humbly request Your Excellency to kindly accept this Declaration as a formal constitutional submission under Article 51(c) and to cause its transmission, through appropriate constitutional and diplomatic channels as deemed fit, to:

- The United Nations General Assembly
- The United Nations Secretariat
- United Nations Specialized Agencies
- Member States of the United Nations

This submission is offered in the spirit of India's civilizational values, its commitment to peace, non-violence, and ethical leadership in the international community.

With profound respect and constitutional humility,

Yours Sincerely,

SUBJECT

Moral–Legal Appeal under Article 51(c) of the Constitution of India Requesting Public Moral Acknowledgment and Apology by the United Nations for Failure to Safeguard Peace, Life, Dignity, and Continuity of All Living and Non-Living Beings.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY (NEW)

This Declaration is a conscience-based moral and legal appeal submitted under Article 51(c) of the Constitution of India, requesting the United Nations to publicly acknowledge its moral incompleteness in safeguarding peace, life, dignity, and continuity of all living and non-living beings since its inception.

This submission does not accuse, litigate, or seek sanctions. It recognizes that while the United Nations has contributed to preventing global catastrophe, it has nevertheless been unable to prevent persistent wars, terrorism, environmental destruction, weaponization of science, and the suffering of voiceless beings.

This Declaration asserts that:

- Life is non-compensable.
- Peace is a universal right of all existence.
- Moral apology is not weakness but ethical leadership.

A sincere public apology by the United Nations and its agencies is proposed as the ethical foundation for restoring global trust, renewing moral authority, and guiding humanity toward Aram-based (righteous) global governance.

TITLE

A GLOBAL MORAL AND LEGAL APPEAL FOR ACKNOWLEDGMENT, ACCOUNTABILITY AND PUBLIC APOLOGY
BY THE UNITED NATIONS FOR THE FAILURE TO SAFEGUARD
PEACE, LIFE, DIGNITY, AND CONTINUITY OF ALL LIVING AND NON-LIVING BEINGS

PREAMBLE

Life is not a product of human intelligence, power, or economy. Every living being is a creation of the natural and divine order. No State, institution, or collective of nations can create even a single living being through wealth, weapons, or law.

Humanity may design systems for its comfort and dominance, but it remains incapable of creating life beyond the pathways granted by nature itself.

Therefore, the value of a single life — human or non-human — is non-compensable, non-negotiable, and beyond restitution.

FOUNDATIONAL LEGAL BASIS

This Declaration is grounded in:

- Article 51(c), Constitution of India
- Charter of the United Nations – Articles 1, 2, 55, 56, and 103
- Universal Declaration of Human Rights – Articles 1 and 3
- International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR) – Article 6
- UN General Assembly Resolution 53/243 – Culture of Peace

- Convention on Biological Diversity (CBD)
- United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) Mandate
- UNESCO Constitution and Ethical Mandates

STATEMENT OF GLOBAL MORAL FAILURE

Despite its historic mandate, the United Nations has been unable to prevent the continuation of wars, the spread of terrorism, the weaponization of economies, the degradation of the environment, and the suffering of voiceless beings. The expansion of weapons has outpaced peace. The growth of destructive intelligence has exceeded ethical restraint. This reality represents not legal guilt, but moral incompleteness.

FAILURE TOWARD LIVING AND NON-LIVING BEINGS

Peace has been narrowly defined as inter-State stability, while ecosystems collapse, species vanish, and nature is poisoned. Peace belongs to all existence. It is not an exclusive human entitlement.

ON UNESCO AND ETHICAL FAILURE

When education and science advance without ethics, intelligence becomes an instrument of destruction. This represents a civilizational imbalance that demands acknowledgment.

STATEMENT OF NON-ACCUSATION & NON-BINDING INTENT (NEW)

This Declaration:

- Makes no legal accusation,
- Seeks no sanction or liability,
- Requests no binding legal obligation.

It is a moral appeal grounded in conscience, intended to strengthen—not weaken—the United Nations.

THE MORAL NECESSITY OF PUBLIC APOLOGY

Justice begins with truth. A public moral apology is not weakness; it is ethical leadership. Apology acknowledges that:

- Peace was inadequately safeguarded,
- Life was treated as collateral,

- Ethics lagged behind power.

WHY APOLOGY IS ARAM (RIGHTEOUSNESS)

Aram demands humility before life. No institution is exempt. Before justice, all are equal.

EXPECTED MORAL OUTCOME

A sincere apology would:

- Restore global trust,
- Rebuild moral authority,
- Renew ethical governance,
- Safeguard continuity of life.

FORMAL MORAL CALL

This Declaration respectfully calls upon the United Nations and its Specialized Agencies to issue a public moral apology before the world, and to recommit to safeguarding all life and existence.

CONCLUSION

Peace must begin with truth.
Peace must begin with humility.
Peace must begin with apology.

ANNEXURE – A - FAILURE TO PREVENT WARS, MASS DEATHS, AND CIVILIAN SUFFERING (United Nations – Peace & Security Self-Acknowledged Evidence)

SOURCE AUTHORITIES:

- United Nations Secretary-General
- United Nations Security Council
- United Nations General Assembly

PRIMARY UN DOCUMENTS & PRECISE REFERENCES:

A1. United Nations Secretary-General,

“Our Common Agenda” (A/75/982, 2021),

Section: “A World in Peril”, para. 9–12: “Despite decades of multilateral efforts, violent conflict persists in many regions, with civilians continuing to bear the gravest consequences of war.”

A2. Report of the Secretary-General on the Work of the Organization

(Annual Reports to the General Assembly, multiple years),

Summary Chapter on Peace and Security: “The United Nations has not been able to prevent the recurrence and prolongation of armed conflicts resulting in large-scale civilian suffering and loss of life.”

A3. UN Security Council,

Reports on the Protection of Civilians in Armed Conflict (e.g., S/2022/381):

“Civilians continue to account for the overwhelming majority of casualties in contemporary armed conflicts.”

LEGAL–MORAL IMPLICATION:

These statements constitute formal self-acknowledgment by the UN system of persistent gaps in fulfilling Article 1(1) of the UN Charter (maintenance of international peace and security).

MORAL RELEVANCE:

The inability to prevent recurring wars and civilian deaths establishes ethical incompleteness, creating a moral obligation for acknowledgment and reflection.

ANNEXURE – B - ENVIRONMENTAL DESTRUCTION AND ECOLOGICAL FAILURE (UNEP & UN System Self-Assessment)

SOURCE AUTHORITIES:

- United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP)
- UN General Assembly Mandated Environmental Assessments

PRIMARY UN DOCUMENTS & PRECISE REFERENCES:

B1. UNEP,

Global Environment Outlook – GEO-6 (2019),

Executive Summary: “Environmental degradation is proceeding at an unprecedented rate, threatening the well-being of current and future generations.”

B2. UNEP,

“Making Peace with Nature” (2021),

Chapter 1: “Humanity faces a triple planetary crisis: climate change, biodiversity loss, and pollution.”

B3. UN Secretary-General,

Reports on Sustainable Development Goals Progress (2022–2024):

“The world is off-track to meet key environmental sustainability commitments.”

LEGAL–MORAL IMPLICATION:

These findings conflict with Articles 55 and 56 of the UN Charter, which obligate the UN to promote conditions of stability, well-being, and environmental security.

MORAL RELEVANCE:

Environmental collapse represents violence against future generations and non-human life, demanding ethical acknowledgment.

ANNEXURE – C - FAILURE TO PROTECT NON-HUMAN AND VOICELESS BEINGS (Biodiversity and Life-Systems Collapse)

SOURCE AUTHORITIES:

- Convention on Biological Diversity (CBD)
- UNEP-endorsed Scientific Assessments

PRIMARY UN DOCUMENTS & PRECISE REFERENCES:

C1. Convention on Biological Diversity,

Global Biodiversity Outlook – GBO-5 (2020),

Summary for Policymakers: “None of the global biodiversity targets for 2010–2020 were fully met.”

C2. UNEP / IPBES Global Assessment (2019):

“Around one million species are threatened with extinction, many within decades.”

C3. UN Reports on Wildlife Crime and Habitat Loss:

“Existing international mechanisms remain insufficient to halt biodiversity collapse.”

LEGAL–MORAL IMPLICATION:

Limiting peace and rights to human beings alone contradicts the universal principle of protection of life embedded in international law.

MORAL RELEVANCE:

The suffering of voiceless beings exposes a moral blind spot within global governance.

ANNEXURE – D - ETHICAL FAILURE IN EDUCATION, SCIENCE, AND KNOWLEDGE (UNESCO Self-Acknowledged Evidence)

SOURCE AUTHORITIES:

- UNESCO Constitution
- UNESCO Ethics & Education Reports

PRIMARY UN DOCUMENTS & PRECISE REFERENCES:

D1. UNESCO Constitution (1945),

Preamble: “Since wars begin in the minds of men, it is in the minds of men that the defenses of peace must be constructed.”

D2. UNESCO,

Recommendation on the Ethics of Science and Technology (2017):

“Scientific progress has often outpaced ethical frameworks, creating risks of misuse.”

D3. UNESCO,

Education for Sustainable Development Reviews:

“Education systems have not adequately embedded ethical responsibility proportional to technological power.”

LEGAL–MORAL IMPLICATION:

This reflects partial failure in fulfilling UNESCO’s core mandate.

MORAL RELEVANCE:

Knowledge without ethics accelerates destruction rather than peace.

ANNEXURE – E - WEAPONIZATION, MILITARIZATION, AND MORAL REGRESSION (UN Disarmament Evidence)

SOURCE AUTHORITIES:

- United Nations Office for Disarmament Affairs (UNODA)
- UN Secretary-General's Disarmament Agenda

PRIMARY UN DOCUMENTS & PRECISE REFERENCES:

E1. UN Secretary-General,

“Securing Our Common Future: An Agenda for Disarmament” (2018):

“Global military spending continues to rise, while disarmament progress remains insufficient.”

E2. SIPRI data cited in UNODA briefings:

“Worldwide military expenditure has reached historic highs.”

E3. UNODA Annual Reports:

“Proliferation of weapons continues to pose existential risks.”

LEGAL–MORAL IMPLICATION:

Contradiction between disarmament objectives and real-world outcomes highlights ethical regression.

MORAL RELEVANCE:

When weapons grow faster than peace, moral leadership demands acknowledgment.

ANNEXURE – F - FORMAL UN RECOGNITION OF INSTITUTIONAL LIMITATIONS (Self-Acknowledgment of Incompleteness)

SOURCE AUTHORITIES:

- UN Secretary-General Reform & Agenda Reports

PRIMARY UN DOCUMENTS & PRECISE REFERENCES:

F1. United Nations Secretary-General,

“Our Common Agenda” (2021):

“The United Nations alone cannot resolve all global crises.”

F2. UN Secretary-General Reform Reports (2017–2023):

“Multilateral institutions face credibility, effectiveness, and trust challenges.”

F3. UN High-Level Panels on Multilateralism:

“Systemic reform and moral renewal are necessary for global governance.”

LEGAL–MORAL IMPLICATION:

These admissions establish ethical space for public acknowledgment of limitations without legal liability.

MORAL RELEVANCE:

Recognition of limits is the first step toward ethical renewal.
