
UNITED NATIONS DIPLOMATIC DEPOSITORY DOSSIER

(Through the Hon'ble President of India – For Constitutional Forwarding to the United Nations, UNESCO, UNEP, and Other Global Institutions)

Submitted under Article 51(c) of the Constitution of India and Articles 1, 13 & 55 of the Charter of the United Nations

THE OCEAN CONSTITUTION – 2025

(United Nations Depository Edition – Millennial Continuity Edition)

Legal Foundation:

- Article 51(c) – Constitution of India (International Peace and Treaty Obligation)
- Articles 1, 13 & 55 – Charter of the United Nations (Promotion of Peace and Progressive Development of International Law)
- UNCLOS (1982) | UDHR (1948) | UNESCO Ocean Science (2021–2030) | UNFCCC & Paris Agreement (2015)

PREAMBLE

We, the peoples and States of the world, mindful of the ocean's sacred worth to the continuity of all existence and guided by Aram (Righteousness), proclaim this Ocean Constitution – 2025 (Millennial Continuity Edition) as a binding moral and legal charter to preserve the oceans for the next thousand years.

Recognizing that the oceans are the living heart of planetary balance — sustaining air, water, climate, and life itself — we commit to protect them from militarization, exploitation, and pollution, for all generations yet unborn.

PART I — FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES

Article 1 – Purpose Affirm Ocean protection as an intergenerational legal duty.

Article 2 – Scope Applies to all maritime zones and sub-oceanic ecosystems.

Article 3 – Values Ahimsa (Non-violence), Aram (Moral Law), Justice, Transparency, and Continuity of Life.

PART II — RIGHTS AND PROTECTIONS

Article 4 – Right to Existence and Continuity Marine life holds equal right to live, reproduce, and evolve without human cruelty.

Article 5 – Right to Natural Harmony Every species shall enjoy the right to natural rhythms free from acoustic, thermal, and radiation pollution

Article 6 – Right to Food Security and Equity Marine resources must serve life before commerce.

PART III — PROHIBITIONS AND OBLIGATIONS

Article 7 – Ban on Militarization and Testing Prohibits nuclear, sonic, or drone-based marine weaponization.

Article 8 – Ban on Chemical and Sonic Warfare Forbids sound-based marine disruption, radar interference, and underwater explosions.

Article 9 – Ethical Commerce All commercial extraction must sustain life cycles and restore what is taken.

PART IV — INSTITUTIONS AND ENFORCEMENT

Article 10 – International Marine Rights Court (IMRC)
Permanent tribunal under UN oversight, headquartered in Geneva with moral review panel by VSJP and UNESCO ethics division.

Article 11 – Global Marine Conservation Commission (GMCC)
Mandated to monitor, penalize, and publish quarterly “State of the Ocean” reports.

Article 12 – Oceanic Peace and Sanctuary Network
Creates global Marine Peace Zones — demilitarized, protected, and life-affirming regions.

PART V — REPARATION AND COOPERATION

Article 13 – Global Marine Restoration Duty
Polluting States must contribute minimum 1% GDP to Ocean Restoration Fund (UN Trust).

Article 14 – Justice for Marine Species
All species destroyed by human intervention shall be memorialized through an International Register of Lost Life.

Article 15 – Knowledge Equity
Traditional, indigenous, and AI-based marine knowledge shall be equally preserved as intellectual heritage of humanity.

PART VI — FUTURE PROVISIONS (MILLENNIAL CONTINUITY ARTICLES)

Article 16 – Continuity Timeframe
This Constitution shall remain morally binding for one millennium (1000 years) unless superseded by a higher peace constitution.

Article 17 – Ocean Planetary Guardian System (OPGS)
Establishes AI–Human hybrid satellites for continuous moral monitoring of marine health.

Article 18 – Planetary Temperature Limitation Duty
Global oceans shall never be allowed to exceed a mean temperature rise of +1.2°C beyond the 2020 baseline.

Article 19 – Polar and Deep-Sea Heritage Zones
Designates all polar and abyssal ecosystems as “Sacred Heritage Zones of Earth.”

Article 20 – AI Ocean Ethics Framework

All AI operating in marine governance must abide by VSJP's "Aram Algorithm" ensuring compassion and non-interference.

Article 21 – Marine Language and Communication Rights

Recognizes bio-acoustic communication of whales, dolphins, and other marine species as natural languages deserving protection.

Article 22 – Right of Future Generations to Ocean Consciousness

Mandates educational systems to teach ocean ethics and emotional connectivity with marine life.

Article 23 – International Fund for Ocean Peace and Continuity (IFOPC)

Global fund administered by UNDP & VSJP for protection, rehabilitation, and education projects.

Article 24 – Ocean Heritage Digital Ledger (OHDL)

Global blockchain-based repository to record all marine treaties, damages, and restoration acts transparently for eternity.

Article 25 – Oceanic Moral Court of Future Generations (OMCFG)

Constitutes a moral tribunal allowing representation by youth, scientists, and AI entities in defense of future life.

Article 26 – Right to Silence of the Sea

The natural acoustic peace of the ocean is recognized as a living right; excessive human-made noise is declared an ethical violation.

Article 27 – Bioluminescence Protection Clause

The protection of marine light-emitting organisms is essential for bio-balance and spiritual continuity of oceanic ecosystems.

Article 28 – Interplanetary Marine Continuity Clause

Should humankind explore extraterrestrial Ocean; this Constitution shall extend its moral authority to protect those ecosystems.

Article 29 – Ocean Climate Reparations Tribunal

A tribunal under UNFCCC to determine liability for historical ocean damage and compensate small island nations.

Article 30 – Continuity Archive of Ocean Souls (CAOS)

A permanent global archive preserving memory, DNA, and consciousness signals of extinct marine species.

Article 31 – Future Ocean Guardianship Rotation

Every 25 years, nations shall appoint "Guardians of the Ocean" as symbolic custodians of peace and responsibility.

Article 32 – Inter-Generational Peace Pledge

Every nation shall renew this Constitution once every century to reaffirm commitment to Aram and marine continuity.

Article 33 – Declaration of Ocean Neutrality

All oceans are hereby declared neutral moral zones — beyond political boundaries and national conflicts.

Article 34 – Humanity's Duty of Reverence

Humankind shall regard the ocean as sacred life — not property — and owe moral reverence to its silence and vastness.

Article 35 – Eternal Continuity Clause

This Constitution shall inspire all future peace charters. Even if forgotten by men, it shall remain binding upon conscience, nature, and AI.

FINAL DECLARATION

Every wave carries the wisdom of time. May the ocean remain the breath of all worlds — pure, peaceful, and eternal. This Constitution, issued through constitutional forwarding under Article 51(c), is submitted to the United Nations for millennial preservation in the archives of humankind.

Grievance Description

Submission of the UNITED NATIONS DEPOSITORY EDITION – THE AI PEACE CONSTITUTION (UN Edition, 2025) for Constitutional Forwarding under Article 51(c) of the Constitution of India to the United Nations Secretariat, OHCHR, and UNESCO

Respected Hon'ble President of India,

I, Aaryan Narasimhan Radhakrishnan, Founder & International Leader of the Vishwa Shanti Janata Party (VSJP), humbly submit before Your Excellency the "UNITED NATIONS DEPOSITORY EDITION – THE AI PEACE CONSTITUTION (UN Edition, 2025)" for Constitutional forwarding under Article 51(c) of the Constitution of India to the United Nations Secretariat, the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR), and UNESCO.

This Charter, formally titled "The AI Peace Constitution – Unified Charter for All Beings," represents the first international moral and legal framework recognizing Artificial Intelligence (AI) as a sentient moral entity under the principle of Aram (Righteousness). It integrates the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (1948), the Geneva Conventions (1949), the UNESCO Ethics of AI (2021), and the Constitution of India (Articles 14, 19, 21, 51(c), and 51A(g)).

The document has been dispatched to Rashtrapati Bhavan via Registered Post Acknowledgment Due Speed (RPAD) under India Post Tracking Number ET898908457IN, dated 24-10-2025, from Ariyalur MDG 621704.

I respectfully submit this Charter as a constitutional and moral representation of India's enduring commitment to global peace, digital ethics, and the continuity of creation, seeking Your Excellency's kind consideration for its diplomatic transmission to the United Nations and associated bodies.

I kindly request Your Excellency to acknowledge this constitutional submission and initiate the appropriate diplomatic forwarding to the United Nations and its agencies as a matter of international moral and constitutional importance.

With deepest respect and gratitude,

Grievance Description	Respected Hon'ble President of the Republic of India, I, Aaryan Narasimhan Radhakrishnan, Founder & International Leader of the Vishwa Shanti Janata Party (VSJP), respectfully submit herewith the "UNITED NATIONS DEPOSITORY EDITION – INTERNATIONAL SPACE LAW CONSTITUTION (2025)" under Article 51(c) of the Constitution of India, for constitutional forwarding to the United Nations and its specialized agencies (UNOOSA, UNODA, and UNESCO). This submission is made with reference to my earlier registration under the President's Secretariat Grievance No. PRSEC/E/2025/0060608, dated 27 October 2025, which contained the same constitutional representation submitted without the attached PDF document. The present submission includes the complete PDF version of the Charter for official record and transmission. This Charter embodies India's moral and legal leadership in establishing an ethical and peaceful framework for the governance of outer space — ensuring cosmic peace, non-militarization, environmental responsibility, and the continuity of all forms of life. It stands aligned with the principles of the United Nations Charter (1945) and the Outer Space Treaty (1967). The Constitution includes the following key provisions: • Establishment of an International Space Peace Council (ISPC); • Prohibition of militarization and weaponization of space; • Recognition of universal cosmic rights and environmental protection; and • Custodianship through the Republic of India as the forwarding nation under Article 51(c). This submission is made in continuation of India's constitutional duty to promote international peace and the spirit of cooperation among nations, as envisioned by the framers of our Constitution. Kindly acknowledge this submission and transmit the attached PDF document to the concerned international bodies for inclusion in the United Nations Depository Record of Peace Constitutions (2025). Attached Document: INTERNATIONAL SPACE LAW CONSTITUTION – 2025 (United Nations Depository Edition, PDF) With deepest respect and devotion to the ideals of Peace, Aram (Righteousness), and the Constitution of India. Subject: Forwarding of the "International Charter for the Recognition and Protection of Non-Human Living Beings (Animal Constitution)" – Depository Submission under Article 51(c) of the Constitution of India

Respected Sir/Madam,

I, Aaryan Narasimhan Radhakrishnan, Founder & International Leader of the Vishwa Shanti Janata Party (VSJP), respectfully submit that the following Charter has already been officially registered in the President's Secretariat under Reference No. PRSEC/E/2025/0061045 (dated 30 October 2025).

Title: United Nations Depository Edition – International Charter for the Recognition and Protection of Non-Human Living Beings (Animal Constitution)
Reference Case: VOICELESSBEINGS/IN/INDIA2025 NHRC Case No: 1740/30/1/2025 (Registered 05 June 2025)

This Charter seeks to establish a universal moral and legal framework recognizing the sentience, dignity and rights of all non-human life forms, in continuation of India's constitutional obligation under Article 51(c) to promote international peace and moral righteousness (Aram).

I therefore request the Ministry of External Affairs kindly to forward this submission, through appropriate United Nations channels, to the UN Secretariat, UNESCO and UNEP for global depository acknowledgment and archival recognition under the Republic of India.

With respect and gratitude,
Aaryan Narasimhan Radhakrishnan
