To

His Excellency,
The Hon'ble President of the Republic of India,
Rashtrapati Bhavan
New Delhi – 110004
India

SUBJECT:

Submission of the “International Declaration on Global Energy Democracy” for Consideration and Transmission to the United Nations and Member States –
Reg.

Your Excellency,

I respectfully submit this communication in alignment with Article 51(c) of the Constitution of India, which calls upon the State to foster respect for international law and promote peace, security, and cooperation among nations.

In this spirit, I have the honour to submit herewith an Official International Declaration titled:

“International Declaration on the Establishment of Global Energy Democracy for Equitable Access, Shared Responsibility, and the Continuity of All Beings.”

This Declaration has been carefully formulated in conformity with:

- The Charter of the United Nations
- Principles of international law and peaceful coexistence
- Universal human rights frameworks
- The Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), particularly SDG 7 (Affordable and Clean Energy)

PURPOSE OF SUBMISSION

The purpose of this submission is to respectfully request that the enclosed Declaration be:

- Taken on record as a non-adversarial, policy-level international proposal
- Considered for appropriate transmission to the United Nations and its relevant bodies
- Circulated, where deemed appropriate, for awareness, dialogue, and consideration among Member States and international institutions

This submission is made in a constructive and cooperative spirit and does not seek:

- Any coercive direction
- Any binding legal enforcement
- Any allegation against any State, government, or institution

It is intended solely as a moral, policy, and civilizational contribution toward strengthening global peace, energy equity, and long-term sustainability.

SUBSTANTIVE BACKGROUND

The enclosed Declaration arises from the growing global recognition of:

- Increasing conflicts and instability linked to energy inequality
- Unequal access to essential energy resources affecting human dignity and development
- Environmental degradation resulting from unsustainable energy practices
- The absence of equitable and inclusive global frameworks for energy governance

In response, the Declaration proposes the principle of “Global Energy Democracy” as a voluntary framework to:

- Promote equitable access to energy for all nations and peoples
- Encourage responsible and cooperative sharing of energy resources
- Prevent the use of energy as an instrument of geopolitical coercion
- Strengthen peace, sustainability, and intergenerational justice
- Recognize the continuity of all beings, including ecological and life-supporting systems

LEGAL AND CONSTITUTIONAL BASIS

This submission is made:

- In full respect of the sovereignty and equality of all States
- Without creating binding obligations or legal imposition
- In alignment with Article 51(c) of the Constitution of India
- In conformity with the Charter of the United Nations and established principles of international law

PRAYER FOR CONSIDERATION

In light of the above, I humbly request that:

- The enclosed Declaration may kindly be taken on official record
- It may be considered for appropriate constitutional and diplomatic channels of transmission

- It may contribute to ongoing and future global dialogue on equitable, peaceful, and sustainable energy governance

CLOSING STATEMENT

This submission is made with deep respect for constitutional authority, international law, and the shared responsibility of humanity toward present and future generations.

It is placed before Your Excellency not as a demand, but as a duty — in the spirit of peace, equality, and moral responsibility.

With highest respect,

OFFICIAL INTERNATIONAL DECLARATION

INTERNATIONAL DECLARATION ON THE ESTABLISHMENT OF GLOBAL ENERGY DEMOCRACY FOR EQUITABLE ACCESS, SHARED RESPONSIBILITY AND THE CONTINUITY OF ALL BEINGS

(For Global Public Record – Issued in Alignment with Article 51(c) of the Constitution of India, the Charter of the United Nations, and Principles of International Law, Peace, Equity and Human Dignity)

Date: 14th April 2026

Place: Republic of India

Submitted with utmost constitutional respect to:

His Excellency,

The Hon'ble President of the Republic of India,

Rashtrapati Bhavan, New Delhi – 110004

India.

For appropriate transmission to:

- The United Nations General Assembly
- The United Nations Secretariat
- The Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC)
- UNEP, UNDP, UNESCO, WHO
- All Member States of the United Nations
- All relevant international and regional organizations

PREAMBULAR RECOGNITION

Recalling the Charter of the United Nations, in particular:

- Article 1 – Promotion of international peace and cooperation
- Article 2 – Sovereign equality and lawful conduct of States
- Article 55 – Conditions necessary for global stability and well-being

Recalling further:

- The Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR)
- The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR)
- The Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), especially SDG 7 (Affordable and Clean Energy)

Recognizing:

- That energy is fundamental to life, dignity, and development
- That unequal access to energy contributes to conflict, instability, and inequality
- That current energy systems remain disproportionately concentrated and unequally distributed
- That the continuity of all beings depends upon responsible and equitable resource governance

Reaffirming:

- Non-violence (Ahimsa)
- Aram (Moral Righteousness)
- The dignity, equality and continuity of all beings

FOUNDATIONAL PRINCIPLE

It is respectfully affirmed:

This world does not belong to any single nation, system, or generation.

It belongs collectively and equally to:

- All human beings
- All living beings
- All non-living systems that sustain existence

Nature distributes without discrimination.

Human systems must not contradict this balance.

STATEMENT OF GLOBAL CONCERN

It is placed on record that:

- Energy resources are unequally distributed and concentrated

- Energy dependency has emerged as a source of geopolitical tension and conflict
- Access to energy remains limited in many regions of the world
- Unsustainable energy practices contribute to environmental degradation
- Resource concentration has intensified global inequality

These conditions undermine:

- Peaceful coexistence
- Human dignity
- Ecological balance
- Intergenerational justice

CORE DECLARATION

We hereby affirm the principle of: “GLOBAL ENERGY DEMOCRACY”

Defined as:

A system in which energy resources, access, and governance are distributed equitably, transparently, and responsibly for the benefit of all beings.

KEY PRINCIPLES

1. EQUITABLE ACCESS

All nations and peoples shall have fair and reasonable access to energy necessary for dignified living.

2. SHARED RESPONSIBILITY

Energy-producing nations and entities shall act in a manner consistent with global stability and continuity.

3. NON-MONOPOLIZATION

Energy resources shall not be used as instruments of coercion, dominance, or geopolitical pressure.

4. SUSTAINABILITY

Energy systems shall prioritize renewable, ecologically balanced, and non-destructive sources.

5. TRANSPARENCY AND FAIRNESS

All energy-related agreements shall be governed by fairness, accountability, and transparency.

6. UNIVERSAL INCLUSION

No nation, community, or life system shall be excluded from the benefits of equitable energy access.

GLOBAL SHARING FRAMEWORK

We respectfully propose:

- Cooperative frameworks between energy-rich and energy-deficient nations
- Strengthening regional and global partnerships for energy sharing
- Voluntary, fair, and sovereignty-respecting mechanisms of resource distribution

Such cooperation shall be undertaken:

- Without coercion
- Without political exploitation
- In full respect of sovereignty

ETHICAL EXCHANGE PRINCIPLE

We encourage:

- Development of fair and balanced global exchange systems
- Exploration of value-based and ethical trade frameworks
- Periodic international review mechanisms to ensure equity

Exchange must reflect:

- Justice
- Balance
- Mutual benefit

DEMOCRACY IN ALL SYSTEMS

We affirm:

Democracy must extend beyond political structures.

It must be reflected in:

- Energy systems
- Economic frameworks
- Environmental governance
- Technological development

All systems must embody:

- Equality
- Participation
- Responsibility

FUTURE-ORIENTED PRINCIPLES

To safeguard future generations, States are encouraged to:

- Invest in decentralized and community-based energy systems
- Promote universal access to renewable energy
- Prevent unsustainable exploitation of natural resources
- Integrate ethical education on resource sharing
- Protect the continuity of ecological and life systems

Failure to establish equitable energy systems may continue to contribute to global instability and conflict.

CIVILIZATIONAL DECLARATION

Sharing is not charity — it is duty.

Equality is not optional — it is essential.

Energy must not divide humanity — it must sustain it.

GLOBAL CALL

We respectfully call upon:

- The United Nations
- All Member States
- International institutions

To:

- Initiate global dialogue on Energy Democracy
- Develop voluntary frameworks for equitable energy access
- Promote cooperative, non-violent energy governance
- Align energy systems with peace, sustainability, and dignity

LEGAL CLARIFICATION

This Declaration:

- Shall be interpreted in full conformity with international law
- Fully respects the sovereignty and equality of all States
- Does not create binding obligations
- Functions as a moral, policy, and advisory instrument

FINAL DECLARATION

We affirm:

Energy must serve life — not control it.

Energy must unite humanity — not divide it.

Let this Declaration stand as a global moral and policy reference for present and future generations.

Issued in the spirit of global peace, ethical governance and the continuity of all beings

ANNEXURES

(Integral Part of the INTERNATIONAL DECLARATION ON GLOBAL ENERGY DEMOCRACY)

ANNEXURE – I

LEGAL & INTERNATIONAL FRAMEWORK ALIGNMENT

This Declaration is aligned with established international legal frameworks, including:

- Charter of the United Nations
 - Article 1: Peace and cooperation
 - Article 2: Sovereign equality
 - Article 55: Global well-being
- Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR)
 - Article 3: Right to life
 - Article 25: Standard of living
- International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR)
- Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)
 - SDG 7: Affordable and Clean Energy
 - SDG 13: Climate Action
 - SDG 16: Peace and Justice

This Annexure confirms full alignment with international law.

ANNEXURE – II

GLOBAL ENERGY INEQUALITY – CONTEXTUAL ANALYSIS

Global conditions indicate:

- Unequal distribution of energy resources
- Energy poverty in multiple regions
- Overdependence on limited suppliers
- Energy-linked geopolitical tensions

These factors contribute to:

- Conflict escalation
- Economic disparity
- Social instability

This establishes the necessity of Energy Democracy.

ANNEXURE – III

INTERGENERATIONAL JUSTICE PRINCIPLE

This Declaration affirms:

- Future generations have the right to equitable energy access
- Present systems must not transfer irreversible harm
- Sustainable energy governance is a moral obligation

Energy continuity is a fiduciary duty across generations.

ANNEXURE – IV

NON-BINDING AND SOVEREIGNTY SAFEGUARD

This Declaration:

- Does not impose legal obligations
- Respects sovereignty of all States
- Does not interfere with domestic governance
- Operates as a voluntary policy framework

All implementation remains at the discretion of Member States.

ANNEXURE – V

ETHICAL FOUNDATION (ARAM PRINCIPLE)

Energy governance shall be guided by:

- Ahimsa (Non-violence)
- Aram (Moral Righteousness)
- Responsibility toward all beings

Core ethical principles:

- Energy must not harm life systems
- Resource use must ensure continuity
- Governance must reflect moral accountability

ANNEXURE – VI

SUSTAINABILITY AND ECOLOGICAL BALANCE

Energy systems must:

- Minimize environmental impact
- Promote renewable energy sources
- Protect biodiversity and ecosystems
- Prevent ecological degradation

Energy Democracy must align with planetary limits.

ANNEXURE – VII

GLOBAL RISK ASSESSMENT

Current risks include:

- Energy-driven conflicts

- Climate instability
- Resource depletion
- Economic inequality

Failure to address these risks may lead to:

- Global instability
- Environmental collapse
- Increased humanitarian crises

Energy Democracy is a risk mitigation framework.

ANNEXURE VIII IMPLEMENTATION FRAMEWORK (VOLUNTARY)

Phase I (0–5 Years):

- Awareness and dialogue
- Policy alignment

Phase II (5–15 Years):

- Institutional frameworks
- Regional cooperation

Phase III (15–50 Years):

- Full global integration
- Sustainable energy systems

ANNEXURE IX GLOBAL COOPERATION MECHANISM

The international community is encouraged to:

- Share technology and knowledge
- Establish cooperative energy systems

- Promote fair resource distribution

Cooperation shall remain:

- Voluntary
- Non-coercive
- Sovereignty-respecting

ANNEXURE X

ENERGY DEMOCRACY INDEX (PROPOSED)

A voluntary global index may assess:

- Energy accessibility
- Sustainability levels
- Equity in distribution
- Environmental impact

Purpose:

- Policy guidance
- Comparative understanding
- Continuous improvement

ANNEXURE XI

DECENTRALIZED ENERGY FRAMEWORK

States are encouraged to:

- Promote local energy generation
- Support community-based systems
- Reduce centralized dependency

Decentralization strengthens:

- Resilience
- Equity
- Stability

ANNEXURE XII TECHNOLOGY AND AI GOVERNANCE

Recognizing technological advancement:

- AI must support equitable energy distribution
- Automation must not increase inequality
- Ethical oversight must be ensured

Technology must serve continuity — not control

ANNEXURE XIII ECONOMIC TRANSITION FRAMEWORK

This Declaration affirms:

- Transition shall be gradual and stable
- Existing systems shall not be abruptly disrupted
- Sustainable economic models shall be encouraged

Energy Democracy supports long-term economic stability.

ANNEXURE XIV

ACCOUNTABILITY AND REVIEW

States may:

- Conduct voluntary periodic reviews
- Share best practices
- Maintain transparency

Review shall be:

- Non-adversarial
- Non-punitive
- Cooperative

ANNEXURE XV

CIVILIZATIONAL PRINCIPLE

A civilization is not measured by what it controls,
but by what it shares.

Energy Democracy reflects:

- Equality
- Responsibility
- Continuity

It is not a system alone —
it is a moral transformation.

ANNEXURE XVI

GLOBAL CONFLICT PREVENTION FRAMEWORK

Recognizing that unequal access to energy resources contributes to conflict, this Declaration affirms:

- Energy inequality is a root cause of geopolitical instability
- Equitable energy access can reduce conflict triggers
- Cooperative energy governance promotes peace

States are encouraged to:

- Use energy cooperation as a tool for peace-building
- Avoid weaponization of energy resources
- Integrate energy equity into conflict prevention strategies

Energy Democracy shall be recognized as a peace-enabling framework.

ANNEXURE XVII

RIGHTS OF NON-HUMAN AND ECOLOGICAL SYSTEMS

This Declaration affirms that:

- Energy systems must not harm non-human life
- Ecosystems have intrinsic value beyond human use
- Non-living systems (soil, water, atmosphere) sustain continuity

States are encouraged to:

- Integrate ecological protection into energy policy
- Recognize environmental systems as continuity-supporting entities
- Prevent energy practices that disrupt natural balance

Energy Democracy shall include protection of all life-supporting systems.

ANNEXURE XVIII GLOBAL EDUCATION AND AWARENESS FRAMEWORK

Recognizing that sustainable change requires awareness, this Declaration affirms:

- Ethical understanding of energy use must be promoted
- Public awareness is essential for responsible consumption
- Future generations must be educated on resource equity

States are encouraged to:

- Integrate energy ethics into education systems
- Promote awareness on sharing and sustainability
- Encourage responsible and conscious energy usage

Energy Democracy requires informed and responsible global participation.

Guiding Principle:

“அறம் தான் உன்னையும் என்னையும் இணைத்தது”
(Aram is what united you and me)
