To

His Excellency,

The Hon'ble President of the Republic of India,

Rashtrapati Bhavan

New Delhi – 110004

India

SUBJECT:

Submission of “International Declaration on the Establishment of a Ministry of Continuity” for Consideration and Transmission to the United Nations and Member States – Reg.

Your Excellency,

I write this submission with the highest respect to the constitutional framework of the Republic of India and in alignment with Article 51(c) of the Constitution, which calls upon the State to foster respect for international law and promote peace and cooperation among nations.

In this spirit, I respectfully submit herewith an Official International Declaration titled:

“International Declaration on the Establishment of a Ministry of Continuity for the Protection of Life, Ecological Balance, and the Continuity of All Beings.”

This Declaration has been carefully framed in conformity with:

- The Charter of the United Nations
- Established principles of international law
- Universal human rights frameworks
- The Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)

PURPOSE OF SUBMISSION

The purpose of this submission is to respectfully request that the enclosed Declaration be:

- Taken on record as a non-adversarial, policy-level international proposal
- Considered for appropriate transmission to the United Nations and its relevant bodies
- Circulated, where deemed appropriate, for awareness, dialogue, and consideration among Member States

This submission is made in a constructive spirit and does not seek:

- Any coercive direction
- Any legal enforcement
- Any allegation against any State or institution

It is intended solely as a moral, policy, and civilizational contribution toward strengthening global peace, sustainability, and long-term governance frameworks.

SUBSTANTIVE BACKGROUND

The Declaration arises from the growing global recognition of:

- Increasing threats to ecological balance and biodiversity
- Rising conflicts and instability affecting peaceful coexistence
- The absence of long-term, intergenerational governance structures
- The need to integrate ethical, scientific, and civilizational perspectives into policy-making

In response, the Declaration proposes the concept of a “Ministry of Continuity” as a voluntary institutional framework that may be considered by nations to:

- Safeguard the continuity of life systems
- Promote ecological and social stability
- Strengthen non-violent coexistence
- Support intergenerational justice and long-term peace

LEGAL AND CONSTITUTIONAL BASIS

This submission is made:

- In full respect of the sovereignty of all States
- Without creating binding obligations
- In alignment with Article 51(c) of the Constitution of India
- In harmony with international legal principles and United Nations Charter provisions

PRAYER FOR CONSIDERATION

In light of the above, I humbly request that:

- This Declaration may kindly be taken on official record
- It may be considered for appropriate constitutional and diplomatic channels of transmission
- It may contribute to future global dialogue on sustainable peace and continuity-based governance

CLOSING STATEMENT

This submission is made with deep respect for constitutional authority, international law, and the shared responsibility of humanity toward present and future generations.

It is placed before Your Excellency not as a demand, but as a duty — in the spirit of peace, responsibility, and moral continuity.

With highest respect,

R NARASIMHAN Digitally signed by R NARASIMHAN

OFFICIAL INTERNATIONAL DECLARATION

INTERNATIONAL DECLARATION ON THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A “MINISTRY OF CONTINUITY” FOR THE PROTECTION OF LIFE, ECOLOGICAL BALANCE, AND THE CONTINUITY OF ALL BEINGS

(For Global Public Record – Issued in Alignment with Article 51(c) of the Constitution of India, the Charter of the United Nations, and Principles of International Law, Peace, and Human Dignity)

Date: 17th April 2026

Place: Republic of India

Submitted with utmost constitutional respect to:

His Excellency,

The Hon'ble President of the Republic of India,

Rashtrapati Bhavan, New Delhi – 110004

India.

For appropriate transmission to:

- The United Nations General Assembly
- The United Nations Secretariat
- The Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC)
- UNEP, UNESCO, WHO, UNDP
- All Member States of the United Nations

PREAMBULAR RECOGNITION

Recalling the Charter of the United Nations, in particular:

- Article 1 – Promotion of international peace and cooperation
- Article 2 – Sovereign equality and lawful conduct of States
- Article 55 – Conditions necessary for global stability and well-being

Recalling further:

- The Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR)
- The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR)
- The Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)

Recognizing:

- The accelerating global challenges affecting peace, ecological balance, and continuity of life systems
- Scientific findings indicating biodiversity loss, climate instability, and systemic risks to planetary sustainability
- The indivisible interdependence of all living and non-living systems
- The urgent necessity for long-horizon, intergenerational governance frameworks

Reaffirming:

- Non-violence (Ahimsa)
- Aram (Moral Righteousness)
- The dignity, equality, and continuity of all beings

STATEMENT OF GLOBAL CONCERN

It is respectfully placed on record that:

The global community is currently witnessing:

- Escalation of conflicts, violence, and instability
- Environmental degradation and biodiversity decline
- Disruption of natural ecological and life cycles
- Increasing threats to peaceful coexistence and planetary balance

These conditions collectively impact:

- Human life and dignity
- Animal and ecological systems
- Future generations
- The long-term continuity of civilization

CORE PROPOSAL

We respectfully place before the international community the proposal for the establishment of a:

“MINISTRY OF CONTINUITY”

To be considered:

- At the international level as a United Nations–aligned advisory and policy framework
- At the national level within all Member States as an institutional mechanism

PURPOSE AND MANDATE

The proposed Ministry of Continuity shall function as a dedicated institutional framework to:

- Protect and sustain the continuity of all life systems
- Preserve ecological balance and environmental integrity
- Promote non-violent coexistence across all forms of life
- Safeguard intergenerational justice and long-term sustainability
- Strengthen the foundations of enduring peace and global stability

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

The Ministry shall be guided by:

- Respect for all forms of life (human and non-human)
- Recognition of ecosystems as continuity-based systems
- Scientific knowledge integrated with ethical governance
- Cultural wisdom and moral philosophy, including Aram-based traditions
- Responsibility toward present and future generations

SCOPE OF RESPONSIBILITY

The Ministry may address:

- Protection and restoration of biodiversity and ecosystems
- Sustainable resource management and waste governance
- Ethical development and governance of Artificial Intelligence
- Public awareness on peaceful coexistence and ecological responsibility
- Protection of vulnerable life systems and communities
- Long-term civilizational continuity planning

IMPLEMENTATION FRAMEWORK

The Ministry may operate through:

- Integration with existing governmental and institutional frameworks
- Establishment of national expert councils and advisory bodies
- Structured collaboration with United Nations agencies
- Periodic, non-binding reporting and review mechanisms
- Alignment with Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)

LEGAL POSITION

This Declaration:

- Fully respects the sovereignty and constitutional frameworks of all States
- Does not create binding legal obligations
- Functions as a moral, policy, and advisory instrument
- Is fully aligned with international law and United Nations principles

INSTITUTIONAL STRUCTURE

Member States may:

- Establish a Ministry or Department of Continuity
- Integrate it within environmental, social, and ethical governance systems
- Place it under the highest appropriate constitutional authority to ensure continuity of policy and vision

CIVILIZATIONAL PRINCIPLE

Continuity is the foundation of peace.

Where continuity is protected:

- Life is sustained
- Conflict is reduced
- Stability is strengthened

Where continuity is neglected:

- Disorder emerges
- Systems weaken
- Peace becomes fragile

GLOBAL CALL

We respectfully invite the United Nations, Member States, and international institutions to:

- Consider and examine the necessity and relevance of a Ministry of Continuity
- Initiate global dialogue on long-term governance frameworks
- Promote policies that safeguard the continuity of all beings
- Strengthen commitment to peace, sustainability, and ethical governance

FINAL DECLARATION

We affirm:

The continuity of life is not a sectoral concern — it is the foundation of civilization itself.

Peace, sustainability, and justice cannot exist without continuity.

This Declaration is issued as a non-binding, non-adversarial, and constructive contribution to global policy dialogue.

Let this Declaration stand as a global moral and policy reference for present and future generations.

Issued in the spirit of global peace, ethical governance and the continuity of all beings

ANNEXURES

ESTABLISHMENT OF A MINISTRY OF CONTINUITY)

ANNEXURE – I

LEGAL & INTERNATIONAL FRAMEWORK ALIGNMENT

This Declaration is aligned with established international legal frameworks, including:

- Charter of the United Nations
 - Article 1: Promotion of peace and cooperation
 - Article 2: Sovereign equality of States
 - Article 55: Conditions for stability and well-being
- Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR)
 - Article 3: Right to life, liberty, and security
- International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR)
 - Protection of human dignity and fundamental freedoms
- Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)
 - SDG 13: Climate Action
 - SDG 15: Life on Land
 - SDG 16: Peace, Justice, and Strong Institutions

This Annexure confirms that the proposed Ministry of Continuity reinforces existing international commitments.

ANNEXURE – II

SCIENTIFIC AND ECOLOGICAL EVIDENCE

Global scientific findings indicate:

- Accelerating biodiversity loss and species extinction
- Climate instability affecting ecosystems and human survival
- Soil, water, and air system degradation
- Collapse risks in ecological food chains

These findings establish that:

Continuity of life systems is under systemic threat, requiring structured governance mechanisms.

ANNEXURE – III

INTERGENERATIONAL JUSTICE PRINCIPLE

This Declaration affirms:

- Future generations have a moral right to a stable and liveable world
- Present governance must not transfer irreversible harm to the future
- Continuity of life is a fiduciary responsibility across generations

The Ministry of Continuity is proposed as a mechanism to safeguard this obligation.

ANNEXURE – IV

NON-BINDING AND SOVEREIGNTY SAFEGUARD

This Declaration:

- Does not create binding legal obligations
- Does not interfere with domestic governance
- Fully respects State sovereignty
- Functions as a voluntary and advisory framework

All implementation remains at the discretion of individual Member States.

ANNEXURE – V

ETHICAL GOVERNANCE FRAMEWORK (ARAM PRINCIPLE)

This Declaration is grounded in:

- Ahimsa (non-violence)
- Aram (Moral Righteousness)
- Responsibility toward all forms of life

Core ethical principles include:

- Governance must not harm life systems
- Policy must align with long-term continuity
- Moral responsibility must guide decision-making

ANNEXURE – VI

ROLE OF ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

Recognizing the rise of Artificial Intelligence:

- AI systems must be aligned with ethical and continuity-based principles
- Technological governance must prioritize long-term sustainability
- Automation must not disrupt ecological or social continuity

The Ministry of Continuity may guide ethical AI integration.

ANNEXURE – VII

GLOBAL RISK ASSESSMENT

If current trends continue, risks include:

- Ecological collapse
- Increased global conflicts
- Resource instability

- Public health crises
- Breakdown of peaceful coexistence

This Annexure establishes continuity as a global risk management priority.

ANNEXURE VIII IMPLEMENTATION ROADMAP (VOLUNTARY)

Phase I (0–5 Years):

- Awareness and policy dialogue
- Integration with existing institutions

Phase II (5–15 Years):

- Structural governance frameworks
- National-level institutionalization

Phase III (15–50 Years):

- Full integration into global governance systems
- Long-term civilizational continuity planning

ANNEXURE IX GLOBAL COOPERATION FRAMEWORK

The international community is invited to:

- Share best practices
- Conduct joint research
- Develop coordinated policies
- Promote sustainable and peaceful systems

This ensures collective responsibility for global continuity.

ANNEXURE X

CIVILIZATIONAL DECLARATION

A civilization is not measured by what it produces,
but by what it preserves.

Continuity is not optional.
It is the foundation of survival.

This Annexure establishes the philosophical basis of the Declaration.

ANNEXURE XI

HUMAN RIGHTS AND DIGNITY FRAMEWORK

This Declaration affirms that:

- The right to life (UDHR Article 3) extends to conditions necessary for survival
- Environmental degradation directly affects human dignity and health
- Ecological instability threatens fundamental human rights

The Ministry of Continuity is therefore aligned with:

- Protection of human dignity
- Safeguarding public health
- Ensuring peaceful living conditions

This Annexure establishes continuity as a human rights concern.

ANNEXURE XII

ECONOMIC AND POLICY TRANSITION FRAMEWORK

Recognizing economic realities, this Declaration affirms:

- Sustainable systems can coexist with economic development
- Transition toward continuity-based governance shall be gradual
- No immediate disruption to existing economic systems is proposed

Policy direction includes:

- Encouraging sustainable industries
- Reducing long-term economic risks from ecological collapse
- Promoting responsible resource use

Continuity strengthens long-term economic stability.

ANNEXURE XIII

GLOBAL INSTITUTIONAL MODEL FOR THE MINISTRY OF CONTINUITY

The Ministry of Continuity may be structured as:

At National Level:

- Policy advisory body
- Inter-ministerial coordination unit
- Scientific and ethical review council

At International Level:

- UN-aligned coordination platform
- Knowledge-sharing network
- Voluntary reporting and consultation mechanism

Core functions:

- Policy guidance
- Risk assessment
- Long-term planning
- Ethical governance integration

This model remains:

- Non-binding
- Sovereignty-respecting
- Adaptable to national contexts

ANNEXURE XIV

ACCOUNTABILITY AND REVIEW MECHANISM

To ensure continuity of purpose and effectiveness, this Declaration encourages:

- Periodic voluntary review by Member States
- Transparent reporting of continuity-related policies
- Independent advisory and expert evaluation mechanisms
- Public access to non-sensitive continuity-related information

Review principles:

- Non-adversarial
- Non-punitive
- Cooperation-based
- Respectful of sovereignty

This Annexure ensures that continuity remains an active and evolving governance priority.

ANNEXURE XV

GLOBAL CONTINUITY INDEX AND METRICS FRAMEWORK

Recognizing the need for measurable progress, this Declaration proposes:

A voluntary “Global Continuity Index” based on:

- Ecological stability indicators
- Biodiversity protection levels
- Sustainability and resource usage patterns

- Intergenerational impact assessments
- Public health and environmental harmony

Purpose:

- To enable comparative understanding
- To guide policy improvements
- To encourage responsible governance

This framework is:

- Non-binding
- Advisory in nature
- Adaptable to national contexts

Continuity must not only be declared —
it must be measured, understood, and improved.

Guiding Principle:

“அறம் தான் உன்னையும் என்னையும் இணைத்தது”
(Aram is what united you and me)
